

NEWS • News

Vietnamese Americans worry Newsom's coronavirus remark

We see you're using a private browser

Private browsing is allowed only for our subscribers. To keep reading in private mode, please log in or subscribe.

Just 99¢ for the first 4 weeks

Cancel anytime.

Subscribe Now

THE ORANGE COUNTY
REGISTER
Nobody Beats Our Coverage

Already a subscriber? Login or Register

Learn More

By ROXANA KOPETMAN | rkopetman@scng.com | Orange County
Register

PUBLISHED: May 8, 2020 at 5:30 p.m. | UPDATED: May 9, 2020 at 9:08 a.m.

Leaders in Orange County's Vietnamese American community said Friday they were "surprised and disappointed" with California Gov. Gavin Newsom, who a day earlier pointed to a nail salon as the first site of community spread of the coronavirus.

It wasn't so much what he said, but how he said it.

"This whole thing started in the state of California, the first community spread, in a nail salon," Newsom said during his news briefing Thursday in answer to a question from a reporter.

We see you're using a private browser

Private browsing is allowed only for our subscribers. To keep reading in private mode, please log in or subscribe.

Just 99¢ for the first 4 weeks

Cancel anytime.

Subscribe Now

THE ORANGE COUNTY
REGISTER
Nobody Beats Our Coverage

Already a subscriber? Login or Register

Learn More

Follow Roxana Kopetman @roxanakopetman

VIEW COMMENTS

Join the Conversation

We invite you to use our commenting platform to engage in insightful conversations about issues in our community. Although we do not pre-screen comments, we reserve the right at all times to remove any

We see you're using a private browser

Private browsing is allowed only for our subscribers. To keep reading in private mode, please log in or subscribe.

Just 99¢ for the first 4 weeks

Cancel anytime.

Subscribe Now

THE ORANGE COUNTY
REGISTER
Nobody Beats Our Coverage

Already a subscriber? Login or Register

Learn More